CSU-AAUP Discussion Group

Purpose

CSU-AAUP has created a private discussion group “to facilitate discussion between members of the Connecticut State University American Association of University Professors on matters related to their employment at CSU, academic freedom, tenure protections, shared governance, and other issues in higher education.”

How to Sign Up

To sign up, please visit <http://groups.google.com/group/csuaaup>. Choose the option “sign in and apply for membership.” If you don’t already have a Google account, you must register for one. You do not need a gmail account; you can use any personal e-mail account (ex. hotmail, yahoo, comcast, etc.), but you must register it with Google. This is the email account that you will use to post and receive messages from this discussion group. You may not use your university email address to post or receive messages for this discussion group.

Once you have registered your email address with Google, it will give you a choice of how you want to receive the messages. You will also be asked to submit your name and 8 digit ID number (found on your university ID at CCSU, ECSU, and SCSU) so CSU-AAUP can verify that you are a CSU-AAUP member. If you have any problems signing up, please contact Ellen Benson.

Policy

At its last meeting, the CSU-AAUP Council approved the following policy statement for the discussion group:

The intent of the CSU-AAUP listserv is to provide a useful and informative means of communicating with AAUP members across the four CSU campuses who are interested in academic freedom, tenure protections, shared governance, and other issues facing our faculty, students, and campus communities.

Lively and candid exchanges are encouraged; however, subscribers agree that they have read and will comply with the following rules and guidelines.
