What are your plans for Spring Break?

Union News

Update on Hybrid Plan Implementation

The last update informed individuals who might use funds from their TIAA Traditional account to purchase their years of service that they will need to refer to a present value chart to determine the discount on use of those funds. The present value chart is now available on the State Comptroller's website here. (You must agree to the disclaimer before accessing the "Chart for ARP Members with TIAA/CREF Encumbered Funds.")

Reminder: Hearing on the BOR Draft Policy on Transfer and Articulation

The Academic and Student Affairs Committee of the Board of Regents will hold an open forum on its draft policy on Transfer and Articulation (the policy begins on page 2 of the document).

The forum will take place on March 9, from 1pm to 4 pm in the Old Judiciary Room of the Capitol (click here for directions to the Capitol; parking is available in the Legislative Office Building garage). You must sign up to testify; the sign up process will begin around noon.

Stephen Adair, Chair of the Faculty Advisory Committee (FAC), has shared the following information:

- The agenda for the open hearing tomorrow on the articulation and transfer policy
- A copy of the FAC's testimony that will be presented and was sent to the committee earlier this week.

The Academic and Student Affairs Committee intends to complete a revision of the proposal after the open hearing and move it onto the agenda of a BOR meeting on March 15.

We strongly encourage faculty to attend the hearing and testify.

National AAUP Survey

Reprinted from www.aaup.org

The Association is planning to redesign its website this year. The redesigned site will reflect its anticipated restructuring into three related entities (a professional organization, a union, and a foundation). And, we hope, it will make its many resources easier to find and use!

To inform the redesign process, we want to get as much input as possible from members, field staff, and others who use our site. Please take a few minutes to fill out this survey so their website can serve you better.
